

LOCAL MATTERS OF GENERAL INTEREST

Paragraphs Which Tell of the Happenings of Local Moment in Greater St. Joseph

Anything Which Has Occurred Deserving of Local Notice Can Be Found in These Columns

Douglas Malloch was the speaker at the Commerce Club luncheon Wednesday.

It cost Minnie Ardell, a negro, $10 in police court Monday for "bootlegging" beer the day previous.

J. C. Whitwell, M. D., eye, ear, nose and throat. Commercial Bldg.—Adv.

Harold McKinney, a fourteen-year-old boy, was found Sunday night lying near the Burlington tracks north of the Francis street depot with a bullet wound in his left side. He was taken to the Noyes Hospital, where he died the next morning without regaining consciousness. How he was wounded is yet a mystery.

Under a ruling received at the St. Joseph postoffice this week, and which is intended to relieve the mails, articles to be sent to soldiers in France can be sent only when the soldier sends with his request a written order from his commanding officer that the articles are needed.

G. W. Nicholas, the father of J. F. and R. V. Nicholas of this city, died at Lathrop Sunday.

Umbrella Hospital, 811 Edmond street.—Adv.

L. C. Smith, a deserter from Fort Leavenworth, was arrested here Sunday and sent back. Monday Fred Promwell was arrested here for being absent without leave from Camp Funston and was also sent back.

Dr. John L. Cox, former police surgeon, was divorced from Mamie C. Cox Monday.

The Grand Island railroad bridge was closed Monday to allow the last approach to be completed.

Three recruits were accepted at the navy recruiting station Monday.

Rock Undertaking Co. Lady attendant, 916 Frederick avenue.—Adv.

Dr. M. W. Steiner attended a blooded horse sale at Washington, Iowa, Monday, and another at Kansas City the latter part of this week.

The Canadian recruiting station which has been in operation here for a month, was closed Monday.

Tony and Fred Sinsolin, young Italians, were arrested Monday, charged with robbing the Ben Biscuit Co. of goods.

Fred M. Clark of Savannah captured some of the good bridge and culvert contracts let by County Highway Engineer Ray Carroll Monday.

Jamieson Machine Co., engineers and machinists' supplies, shafting, hangers, pulleys, 215 No. 2nd.—Adv.

Charles Dockhorn, eighty-four years of age, who for many years conducted a general store at Wathena, died here Sunday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Mosler of Amazonia died at a local hospital Monday.

Mrs. Mary, wife of J. F. Powers, died at her home, 2304 South Eleventh street, Sunday.

Much regret was expressed here Monday when the death of Patrick Reardon of near Clarkdale was announced.

As a result of the meeting held by Mme. Rott Saturday night, twenty French children were adopted by St. Joseph people.

M. J. Downer for best Plumbing and Gas Fitting, 1002 Frederick Ave. Phone 116.—Adv.

Union painters of the city walked out on Monday, but it made little difference as the boss painters went right ahead with their contracts with non-union labor.

The question of the legality of the will made by the late Mrs. Mildred J. Williams was settled when Saturday night the jury brought in a verdict sustaining the original will. By it William Jewell College will profit $35,000 and the First Baptist church and Memorial Home here will each receive $5,000.

Meyer Block, who conducts a wholesale liquor house on Edmond street, was arrested Tuesday on a federal warrant charging him with violating the statutes by shipping liquor into "dry" territory. He furnished bond.

Meierhoffer Undertaking Co. presents character, service and consideration. Ninth and Felix. Phone M. 266.—Adv.

Louis, the ten-year-old son of Mrs. Maude Puelina, was painfully injured Sunday afternoon when he was struck by a Prospect Avenue car on Rosine street. The boy was riding a bicycle and it is supposed lost control of the machine.

George Nowland, a private in the 110th Regular Engineers, has returned home, having been discharged for disability.

Company B of the Home Guards will appear in the Liberty bond parade this afternoon.

Roscoe Jameson, the negro poet of this city, died at Phoenix, Ariz., Tuesday. The remains were brought here and buried Wednesday.

Harry Smith, 2701 South Twenty-Seventh street, was stabbed in the face and also in the side by E. S. Tibbitts, a neighbor, on Tuesday. The wounds are not serious.

Everything you need for any kind of Painting, Wall paper, Chandler's Paint & Glass Co., 417 Edmond street.—Adv.

Oscar E. Brous of Corning was examined Tuesday suspected of being a slacker, but was released as it was found he was but twenty-one years old in January.

Mrs. E. S. Venable of 714 Dewey Avenue was robbed of considerable valuable jewelry Monday night when her home was burglarized.

Henry F. Lutz, forty-eight years of age, son of the late Ferdinand Lutz of this city, died at Denver Monday. The body was brought here for burial.

Thirty-four registrants, four from Andrew and thirty from this county, left Tuesday for Camp Funston to enter the regular army.

Chairman King of the Liberty Loan committee has received notice that all who are able and do not subscribe to the coming Liberty Loan are likely to have their names indexed as slackers.

The street railway people are this year as last, giving the right of way along the Savannah Interurban to their employees for gardening purposes.

Don Riley's Motor Inn, Storage and best repair department in city. Ladies' rest room and free check room in connection. Seventh and Jule.—Adv.

Clifford D. Gibbs raised such a racket at No. 419 North Sixth street about midnight Monday that he was arrested. He claimed he was trying to see his son who lives with his mother, the Gibbs being divorced.

All hotels and restaurants now serve both beef and pork, the embargo being temporarily lifted by Food Commissioner Harry George.

Sixty-six head of hogs donated to the Red Cross by Holt county farmers sold at the stock yards Tuesday for $2,505.29, which amount goes to the Maitland Red Cross fund.

Arye Beaman of Omaha, fourteen years of age, was held by the police on suspicion of knowing the facts in the mysterious killing of Harold McKinney. He was released Wednesday as nothing could be found against him.

Mrs. Maude Schlermann of Hennessey, Okla., died in a local hospital Tuesday from a self-inflicted wound in the throat. She had suffered much from an operation and her mind gave way.

For stenographic or typewriter work of any description call on Miss Della Robinson, Room 718 Corby-Forsee building, Telephone 1276.—Adv.

County Recorder Harry Yates is nothing if not accommodating, so on Wednesday when Allen S. Howell of Dearborn was to marry Mrs. Mary E. Stein, but had been so badly injured that he could not come here to take out the license, accommodating Harry went to Dearborn and issued the license there.

The police were notified Wednesday of the robbery of the Bank of Conception which occurred Tuesday night or early Wednesday morning. The robbers blew the safe with nitro-glycerine and after securing $1800 made their escape.

James Cowgill, father-in-law of W. E. Spratt of this city, was elected mayor of Kansas City Tuesday by a majority of over 8,000.

Woman's friend is a large Trial Bottle of Sanol Prescription. Fine for black heads, Eczema and all rough skin and clear complexion. A real skin Tonic. Get a 35c trial bottle at the drug store.—Adv.

Dr. DeLamater, city health officer, has announced that the city annual clean-up will take place the week of April 14-21—and all must clean up.

The first candidate to file for county office is Louis V. Stigall, who on Wednesday sent in his name for the office of prosecuting attorney.

J. Howard Payne on Wednesday filed suit for divorce from May Belle Payne, with whom he lived for four years.

Taney Beaumont, William Colt and Paul Wheeler left Wednesday for Jefferson Barracks, where they go to take up army service.

C. J. Crooks of Helena, Mo., and Miss Anna M. Alden of Palouse, Wash., met at the court house here Wednesday and were married following a correspondence school courtship. The groom is six feet six inches tall and the bride less than four feet.

The annual-union ball of the season was held at Prinz Dancing Academy Wednesday night, and was largely attended. It was a very pleasing affair.

Mrs. Anna C. Langer, formerly of Hannibal, died at her home, 294 South Thirteenth street, Wednesday morning. She was past ninety-eight years of age and leaves five sons.

Chairman King of the Liberty Loan committee has information that Sousa's band will be here today for the Liberty Loan parade.

Five young men were accepted for the navy Wednesday.

Miss Mary Stauber was the winner of the Central High School girls' declamation contest Wednesday. Her selection was "The Last Word."

Mrs. Mary Williams of Sabetha, Kansas, died at Miami Beach, Florida, Sunday. She was the mother of Mrs. Frank X. Stuppy of this city.

The Country Club will open with fitting ceremonies this afternoon. The golf links are in excellent condition.

Ben J. Woodson of this city was notified Wednesday that he had been made a member of the legal committee of the State Council of Defense.

James P. Kelly of St. Joseph is reported in the casualty list by the Canadian government, as ill in France.

When you have Backache the liver or kidneys are sure to be out of gear. Try Sanol; it does wonders for the liver, kidneys and bladder. A trial 35c bottle of Sanol will convince you. Get it at the drug store.—Adv.

Amelia Payne, a stenographer employed by the Wheeler & Motter Mercantile Co., will leave in a few days for Washington where she has secured a position in one of the departments.

The spring sale of the American Aberdeen-Angus Association at the stock yards this week attracted a large number of buyers from all over the United States.

The new officers of the Carnegie Culture Club were installed Wednesday.

George E. Cooper, who for twenty-seven years was a fireman here, but who retired a few years ago on account of his age, died Thursday.

George Smith and W. H. Griffin left Thursday for Camp Funston where they will enter the army.

Orders for a vast quantity of surgical dressings to be made by the St. Joseph chapter of the Red Cross were received this week.

Sanol Eczema Prescription is a famous old remedy for all forms of Eczema and skin diseases. Sanol is a guaranteed remedy. Get a 35c large trial bottle at the drug store.—Adv.

The Railroad Club will hold its annual election of officers Monday night.

Rabbi Louis Bernstein in an address before the Co-Operative Club Thursday counseled his hearers not to for-

Humble the Hun Or Pay Homage

This Dragon Must Be Slain! The United States of America is making war to save World-Democracy from the autocracy of Germany. It is fighting a life-and-death struggle to keep its men from slaughter, its women from brutal outrage and its children from mutilation.

To do this it is mobilizing millions of men and billions of money.

No man's private life or private rights count now against the welfare of the country.

The country has been called to the colors, and you, as a citizen, must respond.

This is a time when Every Idle Dollar is an Enemy Alien.

When you loan your money to your government it works for freedom while it works for you—it provides sinews of war for the soldiers and draws interest for you and yours. It is the world's safest investment.

Buy Liberty Bonds

Get that this country had poor who needed attention and help as well as those of other countries.

A campaign to rid St. Joseph of dandelions will be launched Monday under the auspices of the College Club.

Samuel McKamy filed a petition in bankruptcy Thursday. His assets are $750 and his liabilities $2,493.64.

E. W. Dienger was arraigned in police court Thursday, charged with keeping his place of business open after midnight Saturday. The charge was not proven and he was dismissed.

Easton held a Red Cross auction yesterday and made a neat sum of money for the organization.

FARMS FOR SALE—130 acres of land. One of the best farms in Northwest Missouri. Well improved, close to town, good schools, and priced right. Can make splendid terms on this property. Also other farms of all sizes. See or write me at Citizens Bank of Graham, Mo. W. E. Freytag.—Adv.

P. M. Venable has been appointed postmaster at Rushville vice James E. Wells, who resigned. Mrs. Leota Huff has been selected by him as deputy.

Pay Marshall and Mabel McCloud pleaded guilty to shoplifting in Justice Wilson's court Thursday and were fined $5 and costs each, a total of about $40.

It cost Leo Kamler and Alva Taylor $5 each Thursday for joy riding in H. H. Hoyt's motor car without first asking him.

The canvass of votes cast at the Tuesday election was made yesterday. There were no changes in the result.

Dr. F. A. Reimer, who is now under arrest, is still actively pushing his search for the lost papers which he declares will prove he is a citizen. He was at one time a deputy postmaster in Nebraska.

Do you get up at night? Sanol is surely the best for all kidney or bladder troubles. Sanol gives relief in 24 hours from all backache and bladder troubles. Sanol is a guaranteed remedy. 35c and $1.00 a bottle at the drug store.—Adv.

Dr. J. P. Bass on Thursday bought the first, third series Liberty bond.

The Federation of Women's Clubs will observe trolley day today and female conductors will work all street cars.

Francis Robertson was awarded a judgment of $1500 damages Thursday in Judge Vorles' division against Henry Sembler on account of a motor car accident.

Miss Iva E. Fuller, a stenographer in the employ of the C. D. Smith Drug Co., died Thursday.

The county court was on Thursday asked to help add to the salary of Humane Officer Zienendorf, in order that he may be kept here.

S. S. Shull has returned from Chicago where he went with his son, who is on his way to join the Canadian cavalry.

H. A. Myer, master painter, says that not more than one half of the painters of this city are on a strike.

The advance sale of seats for the Galli-Curci concert to take place at the Auditorium Monday night under the local management of Mrs. Francis Henry Hill opened yesterday and tickets were rapidly disposed of. The concert is the last of the season and advance sales indicate that she will appear to a capacity house.

Allen's Sanitary Food Emporium

St. Joseph's oldest, largest and most up-to-date Grocery. No store like ours in the state. Nothing but the best in all departments.

Our Delicatessen Department carries all kinds of salads, cold meats, sausages, hams, cheese, etc., etc.

Our specialty: Hams baked in cider. Auto lunches on short notice.

Allen's

MAIN 2200

Strawberry Shortcake

Have all you want from a small berry patch in your garden. We have a large stock of delicious kinds for the home. Now is the time to plant.

Don't bother about sending off for your plants when you can get them here the day you want to plant them. Visit us or phone.

The Kelsey Nurseries

St. Joseph, Mo.

GET A DEMOCRATIC PAPER—THE OBSERVER, $1.00 A YEAR